Y.S.H.
 Dear have been lucky had you come I have time in to cook the time I love to me at a time I love to tell at a time I love
 the class hope you
 it will be in my room
 next year.

P.S. when I go to Columbia next year,
 I'll try to get some marijuana.

Dearest Ash,
 You and me have had fun raising Hell this year, and we can do the same
 next year.

Dear Johnny,
 You're a good friend who likes cant

Get It and Go

Some say time's a circle
Going 'round and 'round
Ticking off the seconds
In systematic time,

But let's look at the progression . . .
Each moment is new . . .
Traveling towards tomorrow
As swiftly as an arrow
In the path of a line.

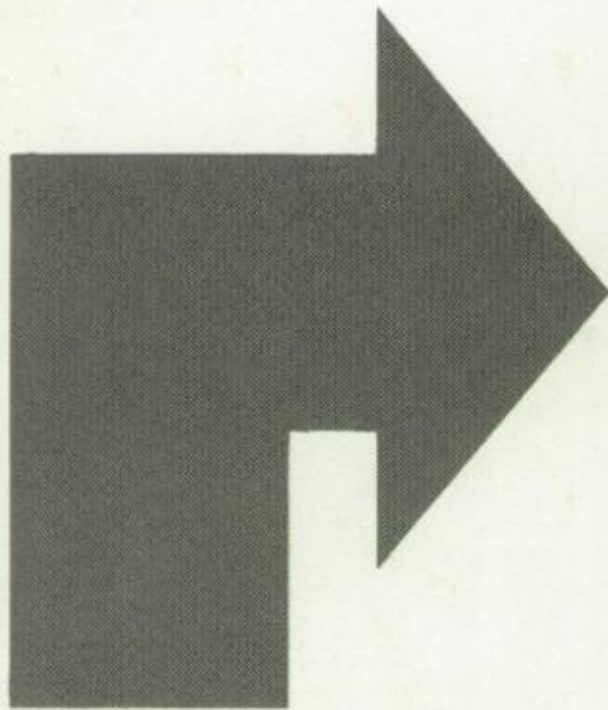

Forward we pace each step;
No halting to look back
Now . . . in this instant, we live.
Holding onto hopes and dreams, we live.

That spontaneous smile is the Beginning of it all;
Energy in motion.
Why stand still?
Get it and go!

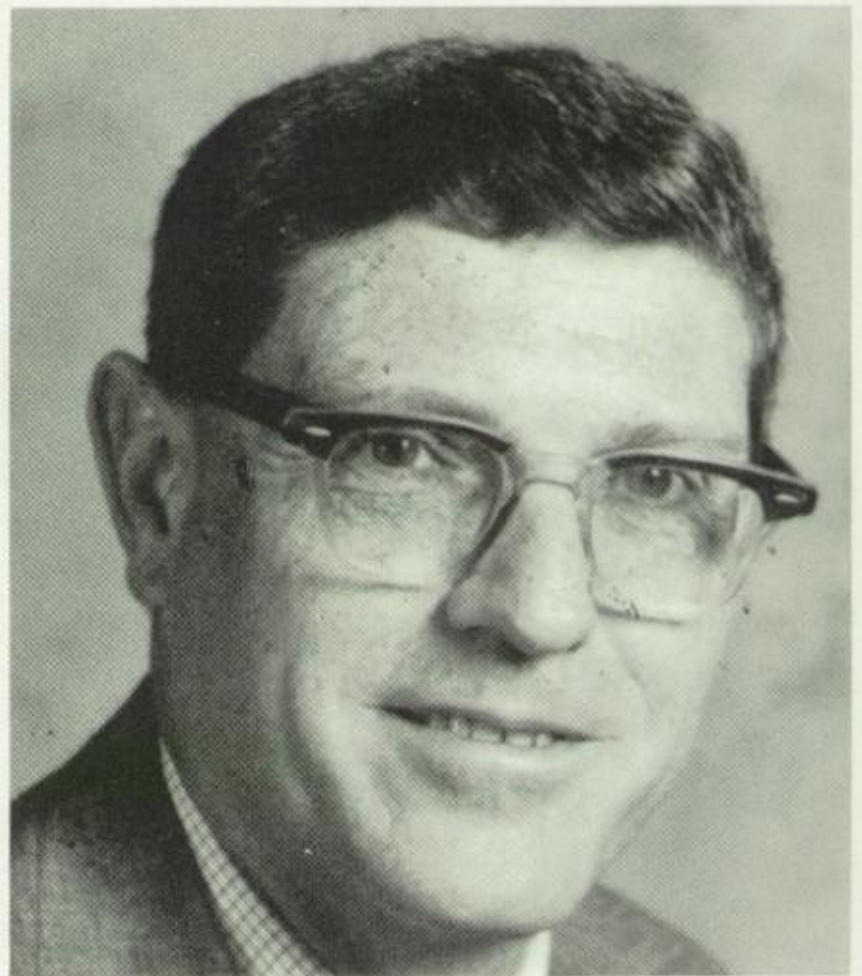

John Abbott:

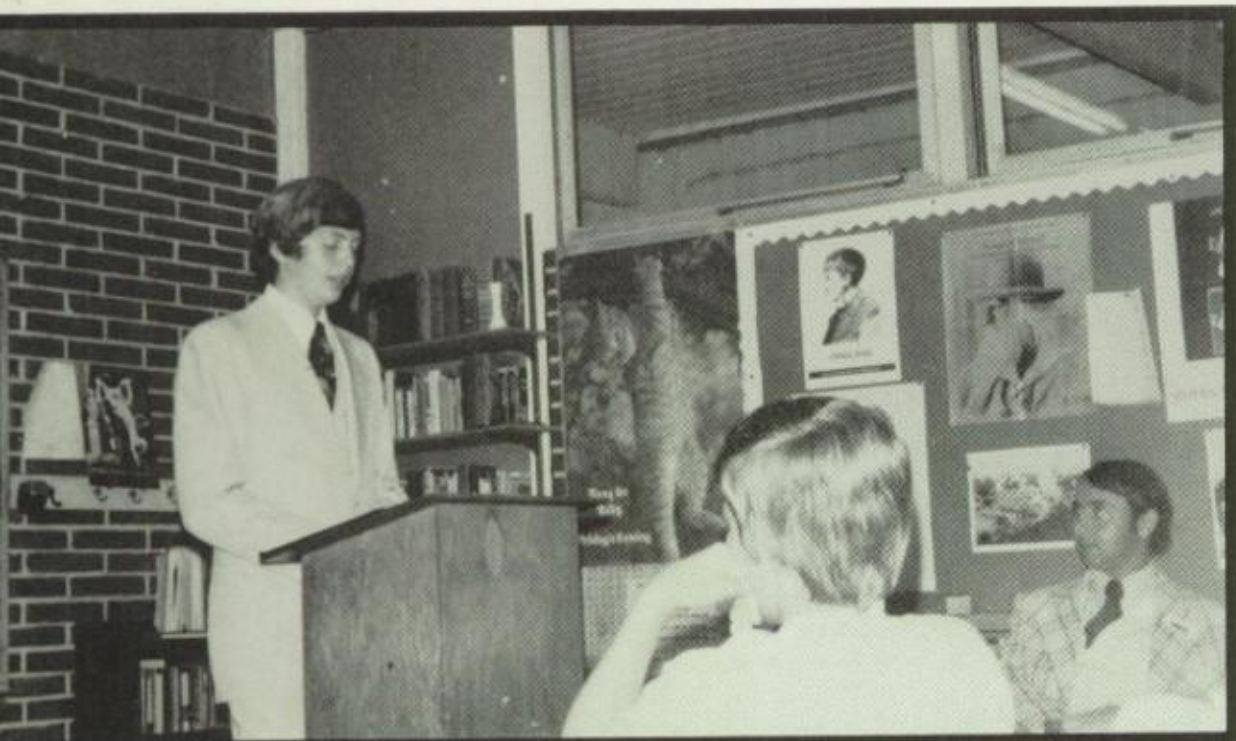

He Has It!

Has what? Dedication and determination.
Always on the go, Mr. John Abbott is ready to lend a leading hand.
Father of alumni John Jr. '70 and Kim '73, he first became involved with St. Johns in the 1964-65 academic year.
Since then, he has served the entire campus community in every capacity:
as a soccer referee, trustee,
Chairman of the Board,
(even accepting election to a second term)
ex officio membership on the Headmaster search committee,
St. Johns' first Development Officer, and friend in need,
planner, dreamer of great tomorrows.
John Abbott has it!

THIRD GRADE

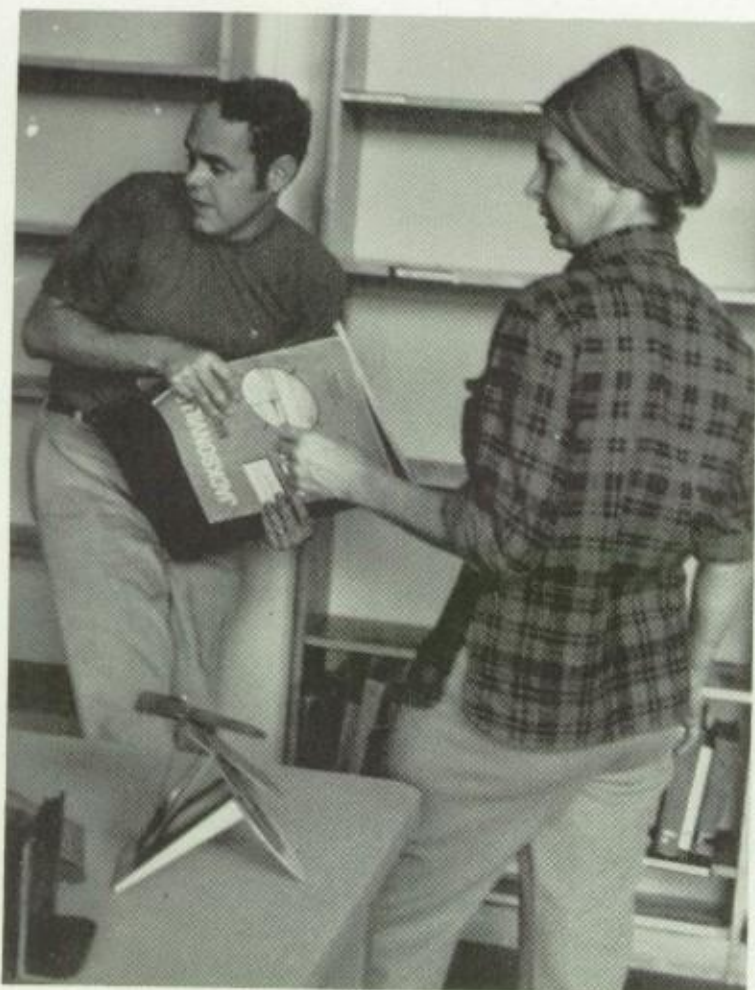

October 14, 1976: Disaster

flames at dusk . . . school cancelled October 15 . . . clean-up time ashes . . . soot . . . smoke . . . tears and later, smiles . . . working together in the sunshine:
 students, teachers, board members,
 and friends
 then a period of rebuilding and remodeling . . . one bright new class wing . . . plus an attractive section for the administration . . . that spontaneous smile was the beginning of it all; cooperation plus

But a Chance for a New Start

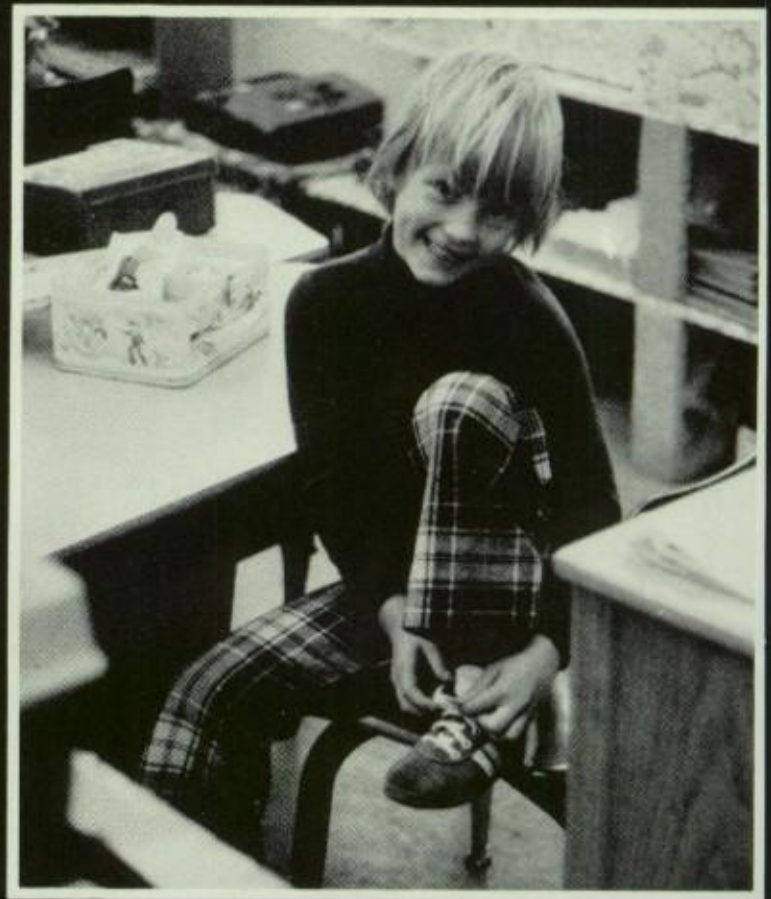

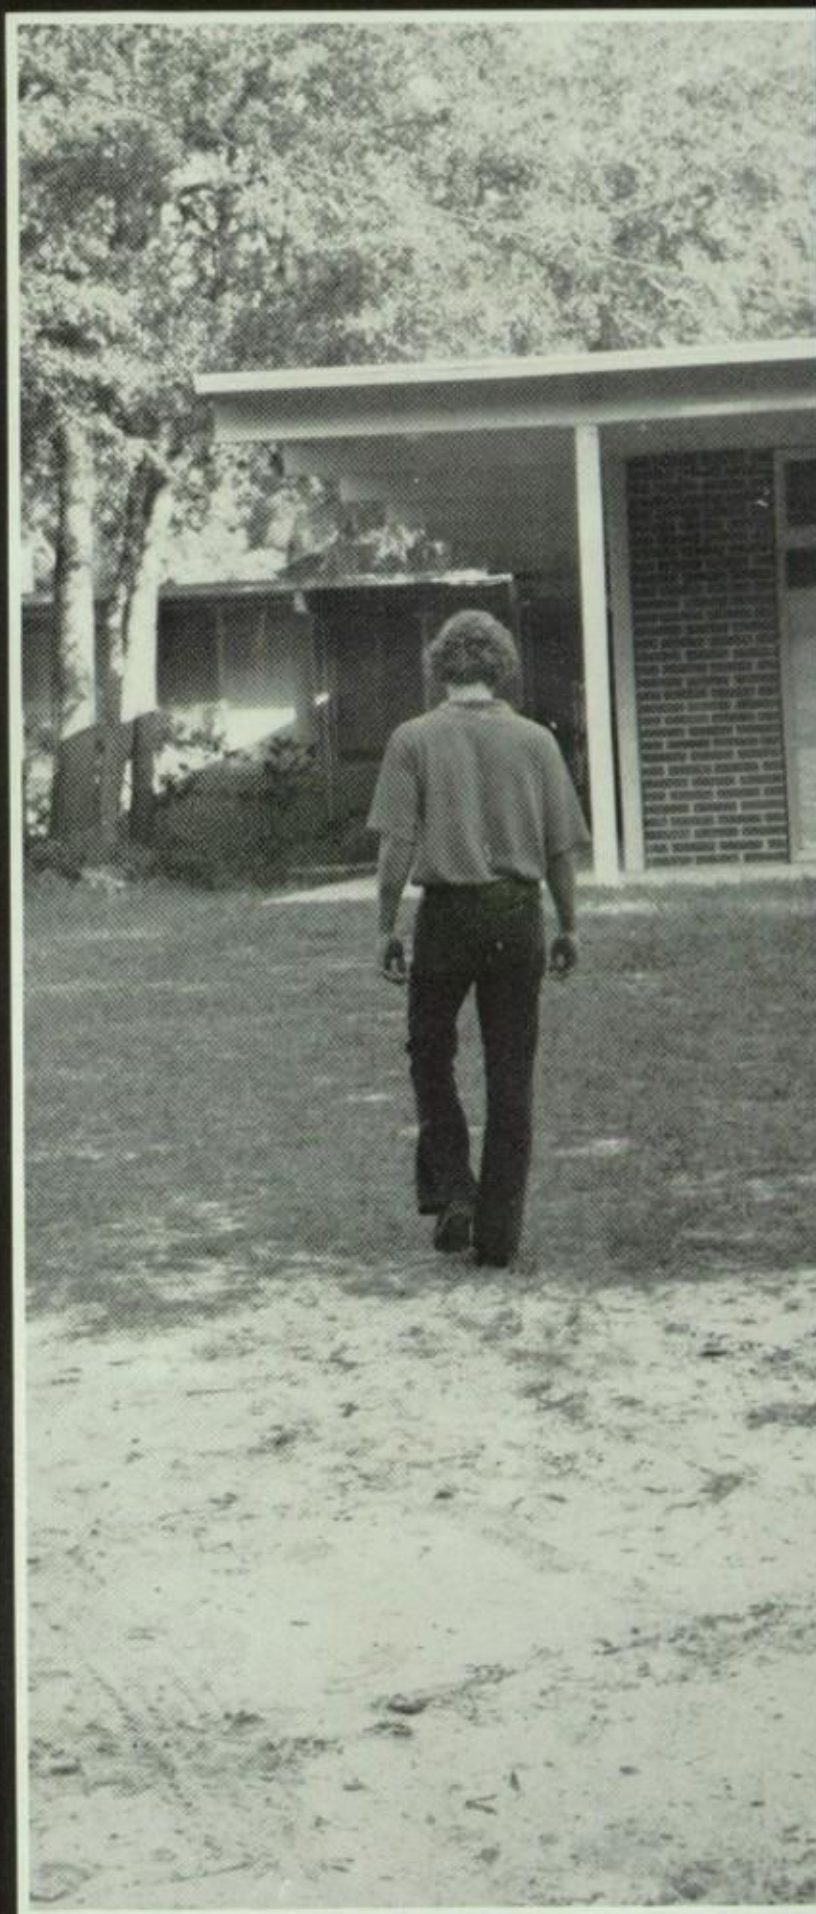

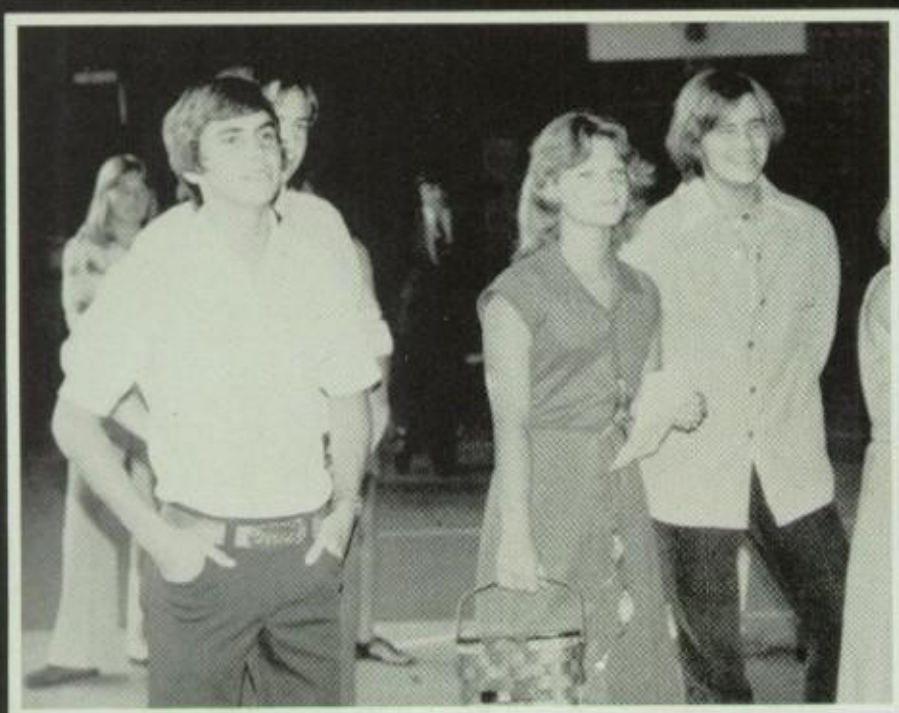

Get It and Go

Some say time's a circle
Going 'round and 'round
Ticking off the seconds
In systematic time.

But let's look at the progression . . .
Each moment is new . . .
Traveling towards tomorrow
As swiftly as an arrow
In the path of a line.

Forward we pace each step;
No halting to look back
Now . . . in this instant, we live.
Holding onto hopes and
dreams, we live.

That spontaneous smile is the Beginning of it all;
Energy in motion.
Why stand still?
Get it and go!

 Theme poem by Elizabeth Hartshorn '77.

Dear Sweetheart,
You had better not be cheating on me or else.
If you are just don't let me find out about it. You know I love you like a little brother and I always will; so be good (if it's possible) and keep in touch 781-5717

Love always,
Donna
